

Following is a list of Mr. Coon's published books and pamphlets, 1902-1925:

I. Pamphlets.

1. Hints and Suggestions for the Teaching of Drawing. 1902.
(Silver, Burdett & Company).
2. Southern Education. 1903.
(A Series of 20 pamphlets on various phases of Southern Education. Published by the Bureau of the So. Ed. Bd., Knoxville, Tenn).
3. How to Teach Reading. 1904.
(Issued from the office of the State Superintendent. Reprinted in 1909 and 1911.)
4. Geography, Nature Study, and Agriculture. 1905.
(Issued from the office of the State Superintendent.)
5. English and History in the Elementary School. 1905.
(A manual of directions for teachers. Issued from the office of the State Superintendent)
6. A Manual for Teachers' Institutes for 1905.
(Issued from the office of the State Superintendent.)
7. Report of the Superintendent of the North Carolina Colored State Normal Schools, 1905.
(This report contains a history of the Colored Normal Schools from 1877 to 1905).
8. Facts About Southern Educational Progress. 1905.
(A campaign document prepared for the Southern Education Board.)
9. Twenty-Five Years' Progress of Public Education in North Carolina: A Comparative Statistical Study of School Maintenance in the South and some Results. 1905.
(Prepared for and published by the committee on taxation of the National Educational Association.)
10. Significant Educational Facts about North Carolina. 1906.
(Issued from the office of the State Superintendent.)
11. Significant Educational Progress in North Carolina 1900-06. 1907.
(Issued from the office of the State Superintendent.)

12. An Outline Course of Study for the Elementary Public Schools. 1907.
(Originally printed in 1904, enlarged in 1907, and reprinted in 1909. Issued from the office of the State Superintendent).
13. A Statistical Record of the Progress of Public Education in North Carolina, 1870-1906. 1907.
(This matter was printed as a bulletin and also as a part of the Biennial Report of the State Superintendent, 1904-1906.)
14. The Public School Law of North Carolina. 1907.
(A compilation and a better arrangement of the public school law, A complete index to the law was made for the first time. Issued from the office of the State Superintendent).
15. Charles D. McIver and His Educational Services. 1907.
(Chapter XII of the Report of the United States Commissioner of Education for 1906-07.)
16. Public Taxation and Negro Schools. 1909.
(An address delivered at Atlanta on April 15, 1909, before the Conference for Education in the South. This address was printed in the Proceedings of the Conference, a synopsis was also printed in The World's Work for June 1909, and it was issued as a pamphlet by the Committee of Twelve for the advancement of the Negro Race.)
17. The Need of a Constructive Educational Policy for North Carolina. 1911.
(Address of the President of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, Nov. 30, 1911.)
18. Our Responsibility to the Negro. 1912.
(An Address made before the American Missionary Society of the Congregational Church in the United States, Buffalo, New York, Oct. 23, 1912.)
19. Peace Day. 1912.
(A program for the observance of Peace Day in the public schools of North Carolina, Issued from the office of the State Superintendent).
20. The Public Schools of Wilson County 1913-14 to 1923-24. 1924.
(Board of Education Wilson County).

II. Books.

1. The Beginnings of Public Education in North Carolina, 1790-1840, vols. I and II. 1908.
(Published by the N. C. Historical Commission, Raleigh, N.C. The author of these two volumes was voted the thanks of the 1909 Teachers' Assembly).

2. North Carolina Schools and Academies, 1790-1840. 1915.
(Published by the N. C. Historical Commission, Raleigh, N.C. The author of this volume received the thanks of the 1916 Teachers' Assembly).

NEWSPAPER
ARTICLES AND ADDRESSES,
CHARLES L. COON, 1894-1924. *****

- 1894: 1. The Passion Play in Boston, Charlotte Observer, March 4, 1894.
2. The Passion Play Once More, Charlotte Observer, March 10, 1894.

1895-6: From June 1, 1895 to June 1, 1896 Editor Lincoln Democrat, a Country newspaper.

1897:1. Mr. Page's Address, Charlotte Observer, June 20, 1897.

(This was an article by "Teacher" on Walter H. Page's address on
The Forgotten Man, at the 1897 commencement of North Carolina College;
An Observer editorial on Teacher's article appeared on June 24, 1897.)

- // 2. Various articles by "Teacher" in The Charlotte Observer during 1897 (unable to give dates) on the following subjects:
- a. Aristocracy in North Carolina
 - b. On Teaching the Constitution in the Schools, The Kinston
Resolutions on Christian Education.
 - c. The Commencement and Honorary Degree.
 - d. Local Taxation and College Men, Local Taxation and Rich men,
Local Taxation and the Preachers.
 - e. The Association of Christian Colleges and the Resolutions of the Methodist Conference.
 - f. Local Taxation Objections.
 - g. The Anti-State Aid Plea.
 - h. State Aid to the University.
 - i. Anent Free Scholarships and How Far Should the Denominations Educate
 - j. Christian Education, Sept. 5, 1897 (Opposition to Dr.
J. C. Kilgo's views).
3. Current History in School, N. C. Journal of Education, September
1897.

1898: 1. Cyrano de Bergerac, Charlotte Observer, March 13, 1898 (Teacher).

2. The New Zealand Rabbit, Charlotte Observer, August 28, 1898
(Editorial)
 3. Survey of European Politics---A Lesson for Us, Charlotte Observer, August 28, 1898 (Editorial).
 4. Anti-Slavery Leaders, Charlotte Observer, June 26, 1898.
 5. Spanish Pronunciation, Charlotte observer, July 1, 1898.
 6. More Anti-Slavery History, Charlotte Observer, July 10, 1898.
 7. The Queen of Denmark, Charlotte Observer, Oct. 16, 1898 (Editorial)
 8. Education:
 - a. New School Law Needed
 - b. A State Historian
 - c. Race Division of the School Fund Charlotte Observer, December 4, 1898.
 9. During the 1898 campaign I reported many political speeches for the Charlotte Observer, notably the Aycock-Pou speaking at Salisbury.
 10. The Newspaper in School, in March 1898 N. C. Journal of Education.
 11. Where and When to Begin History Teaching, in April 1898 N. C. Journal of Education.
 12. A History Course for Graded Schools, in September 1898 N. C. Journal of Education.
 13. Education in the November Magazines, in December 1898 N. C. Journal of Education.
- 1899:
1. Old Christmas Today, Charlotte Observer, January 6, 1899 (Editorial).
 2. Education in North Carolina, Charlotte Observer, January 15, 1899.
(Against abolishing township local school tax elections by Teacher.)
 3. Books and Periodicals, Charlotte Observer, February 5, 1899
(Book Reviews).

4. Lee's Primary School History of the United States, Charlotte Observer, Feb. 12, 1899 (Book Reviews).
 5. When the 20th Century Begins, Charlotte Observer, February 16, 1899.
 6. Quod Erat Demonstrandum, Charlotte Observer, February 18, 1899. (The 20th Century Discussion).
 7. A Plea for Imperialism, Charlotte Observer, February 19, 1899 (Teacher).
 8. Timrod's Poems, Charlotte Observer, April 30, 1899 (Book Reviews).
 9. Education in the February Magazines, in March 1899 N. C. Journal of Education.
 10. Education in the March Magazines, in April 1899 N. C. Journal of Education.
 11. Education in the April Magazines, in May 1899 N. C. Journal of Education.
- 1900:
1. The 20th Century Matter, Charlotte Observer, January 5, 1900.
 2. The New England Educational Revival, 1830-1850, June 1900 Teachers' Assembly, Morehead City.
- 1902:
1. The Declaration Against Illiteracy (Address of the Educational Conference held in Governor Aycock's Office, Raleigh, on February 13, 1902, inaugurating the educational campaign of Aycock's administration.)
 2. Present Condition of Public School Houses (Address at N. C. College on April 3, 1902, at the organization of the State Association for the Betterment of Public School Houses.)
- 1903:
1. Southern Education, numbers 1-20, March 12, 1903 to December 21, 1903; issued by the Southern Education Board, Knoxville, Tennessee. (This periodical was filled with matter to promote school betterment in the South.)
 2. The Next Step, Southern Workman, November 1903. (Article on the training of teachers)

- 1905: 1. Illiteracy in the South, News and Observer, January 22, 1905.
 2. A Comparative Statistical Study of School Maintenance in the South, in Report of N. E. Committee on Taxation as Related to Public Education, Proceedings of National Education Association, 1905.
- 1906: 1. The Township High School, News and Observer, May 30, 1906.
 2. The First North Carolina School Journal, N. C. Journal of Education, September 15, 1906.
 3. Literature in the Grades (Address at the 1906 State Colored Teachers' Association).
- 1907: 1. The First North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, N. C. Journal of Education, May 15, 1907.
- 1908: 1. A Case in Professional Ethics, N. C. Teachers' Assembly, 1908 (Notice in June 18, 1908 Charlotte Observer).
 2. Things That Hinder, in December 1908 N. C. Journal of Education.
 3. Science in the Schools, 1908 Teachers' Assembly.
 4. A Suggestion to Promote High School Development and What Can Be Done to Strengthen the Class of Teachers in the Elementary Schools (1908 Proceedings Southern Education Association, Atlanta Meeting.)
- 1909: 1. How to Better the Negro Country Schools (Address at the National Association of Teachers in Colored Schools, Asheville, June 24, 1909).
 2. Controversy over Atlanta Address on Public Taxation and Negro Schools
 a. News and Observer, Sept. 28, 1909.
 b. News and Observer, October 17, 1909.
 3. Standards for Entrance Upon Teaching, The 1909 Proceedings Southern Education Association. (Address to Halifax county teachers December 3, 1909, and at S. E. A. December 30, 1909.)
 4. Economy in the Treatment of the Course of Study, in 1909 Proceedings N. C. City Superintendents' Association.
 5. History of Education in North Carolina, 1908-09, in 1909 Proceedings N. C. Teachers' Assembly.

5.
6. A Suggested Educational Program, News and Observer, July 4, 1909.
- 1910:
 1. A Suggested State Educational Platform, in January 1910 N. C. Education. (This is in abridged form.)
 2. Are Our Teachers' Meetings Being Talked to Death, in March 1910 N. C. Education.
 3. The Back to the Farm Propaganda, in the May 1910 N. C. Education.
 4. A Deserted School House, in the June 1910 N. C. Education.
 5. High Brow History, in the June 1910 N. C. Education.
 6. Governor Glenn and Negro Education, Charlotte Observer, June 25, 1910.
 7. Two State Boards of Education Compared, in October 1910 N. C. Education.
 8. The History of Text-book Adoption in North Carolina I, in November 1910 N. C. Education.
 9. "Thou Shalt Do No Murder", in December 1910 N. C. Education.
 10. The History of Text-book Adoption in North Carolina II, in December 1910 N. C. Education.
 11. More History as "She is writ" I, in April 3, 1910 N. C. Review.
 12. More History as "She is writ" II, in May 1, 1910 N. C. Review.
 13. History of Education in North Carolina, 1909-10, in 1910 Proceedings N. C. Teachers' Assembly.
 14. Economy in the Course of Study, in 1910 Proceedings N. C. City Superintendents' Association.
 15. Freaks Found in Text-books I, in N. C. Review, December 4, 1910. (Language books).
 16. Physician Heal Thyself, Charlotte Observer, May 2, 1910. (The ignorance of freshmen not all due to the high schools.)
 17. "Quousque Tandem", April 1910 N. C. Education. (The nuisance of requests to send names of high school seniors to all the colleges. The colleges could have a central bureau to collect such information.)

18. Teachers Unprotected, Charlotte Observer, November 15, 1910,
(Comment in Charity and Children quoted by Charlotte Observer, November 28, 1910)
19. The Disfranchised Teachers, Charlotte Observer, Dec. 7, 1910.
- 1911:
 1. Freaks Found in Text-books II, N. C. Review, January 1st, 1911.
(Arithmetic books)
 2. What is wrong with the schools, Charlotte Observer, January
8th 1911.
 3. The Dinner Toter (Address at National Child Labor Conference, Birmingham, Alabama, March 10, 1911.)
 4. We Need the School For Feeble Minded Children, News and Observer,
February 18, 1911.
 5. The Spelling Problem I, in January 1911 N. C. Education.
 6. The Spelling Problem II, in the February 1911 N. C. Education.
 7. The School Census, in the May 1911 N. C. Education.
 8. The Cost of School Books, in November 1911 N. C. Education.
 9. Opportunity Wasted in County Teachers' Meetings, in December
1911 N. C. Education.
 10. The Need of a School For Feeble Minded Children, in 1911
Proceedings N. C. City Superintendents' Association.
 11. Some Needed Text-book Reforms, in 1911 Proceedings N. C. City
Superintendents' Association.
 12. School Records and Reports, in 1911 Proceedings N. C. City
Superintendents Association.
 13. Negro Education, Charlotte Observer, March 4, 1911.
 14. The Discovery of Pelatiah Webster, News and Observer, Sept.
10, 1911.
 15. A New Spelling Book, Charlotte Observer, January 1, 1911.
- 1912:
 1. The Other Side, Charlotte Observer, February 14, 1912 (Child Labor).
 2. Shall We Have Expert School Supervision, News and Observer,
February 21, 1912.

3. The One Teacher School, Charlotte Observer, February 28, 1912.
 4. Why not elect the teachers, too? Lincoln County News, April 30 and May 10, 1912.
 5. Who Should Teach, in May 1912 The Brick News.
 6. Why Teachers Must Organize (Address at High Point, April 8, 1912.)
 7. County Records as Sources of Local History, in 1912 Proceedings of the State Literary and Historical Association.
 8. Has Negro Education Made Good, in March 1912 Brick School News. (Address at Brick School, Enfield, February 22, 1912. Reprinted in American Missionary, New York City, April 1912.)
- 1913:
1. Welker No Carpetbagger, News and Observer, January 11, 1913.
 2. Negro Public Schools, Charlotte Observer, May 9, 1913. (The Catawba County Board of Education refused to call a local tax election for negroes.)
 3. Mr. Walker's Old Bible, Charlotte Observer, April 12, 1913.
 4. How to Get A Six Months School, Greensboro News, February 3 and 9, 1913.
 5. What the Schools can do for world peace, April 1913 Advocate of Peace, Washington, D. C.; in abridged form in the May 1913 N. C. Education and in the August 1913 American Missionary, New York City.
 6. A Plea for Wholesome Discontent (Address at Hookerton, May 1913).
 7. A Cooperative Reading Plan, in February 1913 N. C. Education.
 8. Poems Worth Teaching, in March 1913 N. C. Education.
 9. A Civics Lesson, in March 1913 N. C. Education.
 10. The Beginnings of the North Carolina City Schools, 1867-1887, South Atlantic Quarterly, July 1913; Greensboro News, July 11, 1913.
 11. A Needed Change in Our Teacher Training Work, in 1913 Proceedings N. C. Teachers' Assembly.
- 1914:
1. Plan for the Classification of Teachers, in September 1914 N. C. Education.

2. The Need of a Committee on Professional Ethics, in 1914 Proceedings N. C. Teachers' Assembly.
 3. That Ideal School, Catawba County News, February 24, 1914.
(The folly of making the school teacher the janitor.)
 4. Tarr's Physical Geography and Evolution, Charity and Children, November 5, 1914.
- 1915:
1. Some Concrete Reasons for a Code of Professional Ethics, in 1915 Proceedings N. C. Teachers' Assembly.
 2. They Toil Not and Don't Spin, Lincoln County News, February 5, 1915. (Reasons why the office of county treasurer should be abolished).
 3. Witch Lore Current in Lincoln County in 1830 (Paper read before N. C. Folk Lore Society, November 9, 1915.)
- 1916:
1. Report of the Committee on Professional Ethics, in 1916 Proceedings N. C. Teachers' Assembly.
 2. The kind of Uniform Teacher Certification Needed in North Carolina, in 1916 Proceedings N. C. Teachers' Assembly.
 3. That Disconcerting Poem, News and Observer, January 7, 1916
("Butting into" the row made by and anti-preparedness parody of Captain Jenks.)
 4. Do Children Work in Our Factories, Wilson Times, March 24, 1916.
 5. The Medical Inspection of Schools Unit as a Public Health Measure (Address at Conference of N. C. Health Officers, Durham, April 17, 1916.)
 6. Shall we teach reading efficiently I, Greensboro News, Sept. 13, 1916.
 7. Shall we teach reading efficiently II, Greensboro News, Oct. 4, 1916.
 8. On the Strange Dearth of School Books, Greensboro, News, Oct. 15, 1916.

9. Some Sinister Influences in the 1916 Book Adoption, Greensboro News, December 10, 1916.

(6, 7, 8, and 9 all relate to the 1916 State Text-book adoption)

- 1917: 1. Who Did It, Greensboro News, May 4, 1917 (About discrimination between salaries of men and women on State Board of Examiners)
2. A Geography Lesson for Mr. Bost, May 14, 1917 Greensboro News.
3. Has Solomon Come Back, Greensboro News, June 12, 1917. (The sorry ethics of the use of fulsome letters of recommendation to secure a school job.)
4. Selling Influence, Greensboro News, July 29, 1917. (The ethics of Superintendents of Schools accepting pay to direct pupils to Sandy Beaver's School in Georgia)
5. Sandy Beaver Again, Greensboro News, August 18, 1917.
6. By What Authority, Greensboro News, September 21, 1917. (The 1916 text-book adoption.)
7. More Short Change, Greensboro News, September 23, 1917. (More about the 1916 text-book adoption).
8. More Varied Literature, Greensboro News, October 4, 1917. (Still more about the 1916 text-book adoption.)
9. Taxation as Related to Social Welfare (Paper read at 1917 Social Service Conference.)
- 1918: 1. Why more Money for Schools, Wilson Times, April 23, 1918.
2. Why Call the Germans Huns, Wilson Times, April 26, 1918.
3. About Increasing School Taxes, Wilson Times, June 6, 1918.
- 1919: 1. Where do you stand, Wilson Times, February 26, 1919. (Some Suggestions to candidates for office in the Town of Wilson.)
2. The Bryant School Bill, Greensboro News, February 24, 1919.
3. Some So Called Poor Counties, Greensboro News, February 27, 1919.
- 1920: 1. Those Anti-Suffrage Resolutions, Wilson Times, April 6, 1920.
- 1923: 1. The Beginnings of a Democratic School System, in April 1923 Rural Education (Address at Cleveland, Ohio, March 1, 1923.)

- 1924: 1. School Book Expense, Greensboro News, October 13, 1924.
 2. Some School Book Adoption History, Greensboro News, October 17, 1924.
 3. Cost of Free School Books, Greensboro News, October 22, 1924.
 4. Beauty Contests, Wilson Times, Sept. 14, 1924.
- 1925: 1. The Tax Oppressed Mr. Bailey, Wilson Times, March 21, 1925.
 (Showing up a local school tax hater by giving the facts as to to what said Bailey gets out of Wilson county for the tax he pays.)
 2. College English As She Is Writ: Vain Boastings, Greensboro News,
 July 5, 1925.
 3. College English As She Is Writ: Some Notable Examples of Pure
 Buncombe, Greensboro News, August 9, 1925.
 4. College English As She Is Writ: On Maiming the King's English in the House of Its Professed Friends, Greensboro News, August 23, 1925.
 5. College English As She Is Writ: More Maiming of the King's English in the House of Its Professed Friends, Greensboro News,
 August 30, 1925.
 6. On Keeping a Bit of History Straight, Greensboro News, October 11, 1925. (About the part assigned Rev. J. C. Arends in the Hickory pageant.)

PUBLISHED BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS 1902-1925

I Pamphlets.

- | | |
|---|------|
| 1. Hints and Suggestions for the Teaching of Drawing
(Silver, Burdett & Co.) | 1902 |
| 2. Southern Education
(A Series of 20 pamphlets on various phases of Southern Education. Published by the Bureau of the
So. Ed. Bd., Knoxville, Tenn.) | 1903 |
| 3. How to Teach Reading | 1904 |
- (Issued from the office of the State Supt. Reprinted in 1909 and 1911. This bulletin for helping teachers has been widely used.)

11.
1905.
4. Geography, Nature Study, and Agriculture 1905.
(A manual of directions for teachers of those subjects, issued from office of the State Supt.)
 5. English and History in the Elementary School 1905
(A manual of directions for teachers of those subjects, issued from office of the State Supt.)
 6. A Manual for Teachers' Institutes for 1905.
(Issued from office of the State Supt. This was the first attempt to unify the institute work in this State.)
 7. Report of the Supt. of the Colored State Normal Schools 1905
(This report contains a history of the Colored Normal Schools from 1877 to 1905.)
 8. Facts About Southern Educational Progress 1905
(This was a campaign document prepared under the direction of the campaign committee of the Southern Education Board. This publication had a large circulation all over the South.)
 9. Twenty Five Years' Progress of Public Education in North Carolina: A Comparative Statistical Study of School Maintenance in the South and some Results 1905.
(This was a document prepared for and published by the committee on taxation of the National Educational Association, under the direction of Charles D. McIver, a member of that committee.)
 10. Significant Educational Facts about North Carolina 1906
(This was a bulletin issued from the office of the State Supt. It contained my arrangement of the School Statistics of North Carolina for 1904-05. It was known as Bulletin VII.)
 11. Significant Educational Progress in North Carolina 1900-06 1907
(This was Bulletin IX, issued from the office of the State Supt.)
 12. An Outline Course of Study for the Elementary Public Schools 1907
(This was Bulletin VIII. It was originally printed in 1904, enlarged in 1907, and reprinted in 1909. It contained directions for teaching most of the elementary school subjects.)
 13. A Statistical Record of the Progress of Public Education in North Carolina 1870-1906 1907.

(This matter was printed as a bulletin and also as a part of the Biennial Report of the State Supt. 1904-1906. This publication attempted to add the statistics of the town to the country schools and to correct the imperfect school statistics printed in the State reports from 1875 to 1902.)
 14. The Public School Law of North Carolina 1907.
(This was a compilation and a better arrangement of the public school law, A Complete index to the law was made for the first time.)

15. Charles D. McIver and His Educational Services 1907
 (This is chapter XII of the Report of the U. S. Commissioner of Education for 1906-07. It was issued as a separate pamphlet and widely circulated in North Carolina and Elsewhere.)
16. Public Taxation and Negro Schools 1909
 (This was an address delivered at Atlanta on April 15, 1909, before the Conference for Education in the South at the invitation and suggestion of J. Y. Joyner, Edgar Gardner Murphey and others. This address was printed in the Proceedings of the Conference, a synopsis was also printed in The World's Work for June 1900, and it was issued as a pamphlet by the Committee of Twelve for the Advancement of the Negro Race.)
17. The Need of a Constructive Educational Policy for North Carolina 1911
 (This was the address of the president of the N. C. Teachers' Assembly, made at Raleigh, Nov. 30, 1911, It was printed privately in pamphlet form and widely circulated.)
18. Our Responsibility to the Negro, 1912.
 (This was an address made before the American Missionary Society of the Congregational Church in the United States, Buffalo, New York, Oct. 23, 1912. This address was printed as a pamphlet and widely circulated by the society.)
19. Peace Day 1912
 (A program of suggestions for the observance of Peace Day in the public schools of North Carolina, issued from the office of the State Supt. as Bulletin XXI.)
20. The Public Schools of Wilson County 1913-14 to 1923-24 1924
 (Board of Education Wilson County)

II BOOKS

1. The Beginnings of Public Education in North Carolina 1908
 1790-1840, Vols. I and II
 (Published by the N. C. Historical Commission, Raleigh, N. C. The author of these two volumes was voted the tanks of the 1909 Teachers' Assembly.)
2. N. C. Schools and Academies, 1790-1840 1915
 (Published by the N. C. Historical Commission, Raleigh, N. C. The Author of this volume received the thanks of the 1915 Teachers' Assembly.)