

INDEX TO THE HAYES COLLECTION

Introduction

The index to the Hayes Collection lists personal names, geographic places, and general and proper named subjects in order to provide alternative ways to approach the manuscripts that are chronologically arranged. It is a selective index. It is based on all the filmed manuscripts and volumes in the Johnston and Wood Series, but it lists only places and events about which there is a useful and significant amount of information, famous people, and people with noteworthy or important roles within the activities of the Johnston and Wood families. Minor persons and mercantile companies with only two or three relevant items in the papers have been excluded. The following people, principal figures in the papers, have not been included in the index due to the large amount of correspondence to, from, and about them:

Samuel Johnston 1733-1816	William C. Wood d. 1877
James Cathcart Johnston 1782-1865	John Gilliam Wood 1853-1920
Edward Wood 1820-1872	John Gilliam Wood 1884-1956
Caroline M. Wood 1824-1886

How to Use the Index

References to correspondence and miscellaneous papers

A standard entry gives the name of a person, place, or subject and an underlined year followed by the dates within that year under which items pertaining to the name may be found. In some cases, more than one relevant item may be filed under one date. A listed item may be a letter to, from, or about the person, place, or thing, a bill/receipt, or a legal document. The index does not designate the type of item.

The abbreviation "und" stands for "undated." Items undated as to month and day are found at the beginning of the first or only folder for their year. For example, "1854: und" means that an item dated 1854 without month or day designated will be found at the beginning of the January 1854 folder. Items undated as to day will be found in front of all material dated for their month. For example, "1854: June und" means that an item dated June 1854 will be found at the beginning of the June 1854 papers.

Months or years listed within brackets and not underlined, e. g. [1756-1763], indicate that the individual date listings have been consolidated due to a large number of items to, from, or about a person, mercantile company, or subject. The researcher will find much information by consulting all the folders for the time span given within the brackets.

A "W" in parentheses after a date indicates that the item is in the Wood Family Series. For example, "1860(W): June 25" means that an item for June 25 may be found in the appropriate 1860 folder in the Wood Series; "1860: Mar 2(W), 5, 23(W)" means that items dated March 2 and March 23 are in the Wood Series folders and an item dated March 5 is in the Johnston Series folders for 1860. This notation has been used only for items dated 1810-1865 in the Wood Series. All other items dated 1694-1865 are in the Johnston Series. All other items dated 1866-1928 are in the Wood Series.

References to volumes

References to volumes are found at the end of the dates listed in each entry. They give the number of the volume and the page(s) on which relevant information may be found (unless the entire volume is of interest in which case only the volume number is given).

"V" stands for "volume", and a "J" or "W" indicates that the volume is in the Johnston or Wood Series. An "S" means that the volume is oversized. For example, "V.S-22(J)" stands for oversized volume 22 of the Johnston Series.

Miscellaneous comments

Legal documents, including wills, leases and deeds of sale for land, and miscellaneous indentures, have been filed and indexed by the dates that the documents were originally drawn up, not by the dates that they were probated or registered in court.

Women have been entered in the index under their married names, usually with references from their maiden names to their married ones.

OUTLINE OF GENERAL SUBJECT ENTRIES

Listed here are general subject entries found in the index. This list does not include events or groups of people with proper names, e.g. American Revolution, Confederate States of America, Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal Company. Subjects such as these should be looked for under their specific names.
