

New York Academy of Medicine Collection of International Medical Theses

Box 12:2:22

Copenhagen, Denmark

(H00514631K)

The following titles are part of the New York Academy of Medicine Collection of International Medical Theses, housed at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's Health Sciences Library. The collection consists of tens of thousands of post-1801 theses in multiple languages from leading medical schools throughout the world. Europe is well represented, with many theses originating from universities in Germany, France, the Netherlands, Spain, Sweden, and Switzerland. Countries with lesser quantities in the collection include Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Algeria, Indonesia, and others.

I

STØRRE DANSK BY I AARENE 1920-32

AF

KARSTEN ISAGER

»Ich halte diese Einrichtungen (die Tuberkulosefürsorgestellen) für eines der stärksten Kampfmittel, wenn nicht das stärkste, welches wir gegen die Tuberkulose zur Anwendung bringen können, und ich glaube, dass die Fürsorgestellen, wenn sie, wie zu hoffen ist, in dichtem Netz die Länder überziehen werden, berufen sind, eine überaus segensreiche Tätigkeit auszuüben.«

Saline matter is also invariably found in healthy blood, and the presence of this seems actually necessary to its healthy state; for, when it is lost in disease, the vital fluid goes fast to decay. W. Stevens. (Observations on the Blood. — London 1830.)
